

Content Policy

Last Update: October 20, 2023

When submitting images through the Site, Services and App, you must remove any personal information (or information that could be used to identify an individual) relating to the person in the image and any relatives, employers or household members of that person. This includes but is not limited to:

names,

All geographic subdivisions smaller than a State or Province, including street address, city, county, region, zip code, and equivalent geographic codes, excluding the first three digits of the zip code, based on current publicly available data from the Census:

The geographic unit created by combining all postal codes with the same first three digits contains more than 20,000 people; And

Changed the first three digits of the postal code to 000 for all such geographic units containing 20,000 or fewer people postal codes

All elements (except year) for dates directly related to an individual, including date of birth, date of admission, date of patient encounter, date of discharge, date of death, and exact age if over 89 years of age.

Telephone numbers, fax numbers, personal e-mail addresses

Social security or social insurance numbers, national identification number or equivalent

Medical record numbers

Health card numbers, health plan beneficiary numbers or Health Insurance Account numbers Account numbers

Certificate/license numbers

Vehicle identifiers and serial numbers, including license plate numbers

Device identifiers and serial numbers

Web Universal Resource Locators (URLs)

Internet Protocol (IP) address numbers

Biometric identifiers, including fingerprints and voice prints

Full-face photographic images and comparable images

Photographic images of scars, tattoos, piercings, etc. that will allow identification

Any other unique identifying number, feature, or code (note that this does not mean the unique code assigned by the researcher to code the data).

Registered User acknowledges and warrants that it has removed all identifying information and that

Registered User has no actual knowledge that the Images, alone or in combination with other information, could be used to identify the individual who is the subject of the information.